LOCATION

Hua-Hin lies on Thailand's sun-drenched gulf coast, nestled within a 32 acre tropical garden. It is Thailand's oldest and most prestigious resort and has been popular ever-since Rama VII built his summer residence near the town.

Miles of golden sands adorn the coastline and are known as some of the most beautiful beaches in Thailand, making Hua-Hin and the hotel a year-round destination. Its architecture is in the colonial style and evokes the bygone charm of 'old Siam' with a stylish mix of marble floors and teakwood.

ACCOMMODATION

The hotel boasts 207 air-conditioned guest rooms, including 30 elegant suites, which combine an air of refinement with the latest international facilities. The ochre coloured rooms all feature a delightful terrace offering either views of the sea or of the extensive gardens. Data ports come as standard in all rooms.
